Preparing Your College-Bound High School Student for the New Economy

Presenter: Susan Quattrociochi, Ph.D.

“Go to college and get a good job...” has been the motivating mantra of parents and educators for the past 25 years. Now what? Is it still relevant, or does our mantra need a makeover? Come and learn how parents can help students learn the three things they need to survive in the new economy.

- Understanding Self: Passions, strengths & interests
- Understanding the Economy & Jobs: What creates jobs?
- Understanding the Connection between Jobs & Job Seekers: What is going to help your student land a position.

Susan Quattrociochi, Ph.D. is the former Director of the Washington State Initiative, A Call to Parents: How to Cut the High Costs and High Risks of Education After High School. A popular national speaker and writer, Susan is a respected authority on the power of parental involvement and the educational/career needs of young people.

Recommended for parents of students 8th grade and up

This event is sponsored by the Lake Washington PTSA Council
