Bully Proof Martial Arts Program: Teach your kids to stand up for themselves!

"I'm giving them the courage - and the permission to be loud with someone who is physically threatening them," said Korbett Miller of Miller Marital Arts Academy as quoted in an anti-bullying article on www.moms.today.msnbc.msn.com. He teaches what he preaches by showing students how to set verbal boundaries: What to say, when to say it, and how to say it. Class incorporates martial arts to build self-esteem and give students positive alternatives to solving conflict. Students will also earn their White Belt at the end of the program.

Participants should be in 1st – 5th grade and:

- Bring an after school snack & water bottle with name on it.
- Wear comfortable clothes and shoes.

Have your student submit the completed form and payment to the school office.

Mark Twain PTSA After School Programs Refund and Behavior Policy

Refunds: A full refund will be granted to any student who withdraws up to 2 days after the first class. Otherwise, no refunds unless initiated by Twain PTSA.

Behavior Policy: Mark Twain PTSA organizes after school programs to offer students enrichment programs conveniently located at the school. However, for us to continue to offer these programs we must have one PTSA member stay to assist the instructor at each session. We must also insist that students respect the instructor and act in an appropriate manner, and that guardians be on time to pick up students at the end of each session.

If your student has behavior issues which are disruptive to the class, or is not picked up in a timely manner, we will issue you a warning. If there is a second incident, we will be forced to terminate your student's participation in the program. A refund for remaining sessions will not be granted.

Thank you for your cooperation.
